

Education is an investment in the future of our families and the economic health of our state.

Representative Kiser believes we need to put funds directly into the classroom where compassionate, well-trained teachers can stimulate learning.

“The Utah Legislature has infused public education with $1.1 billion in additional funding over the past 2 years, a 45% increase!”

- ✓ Provided funding for nearly 55,000 new students
- ✓ Gave a direct salary increase of $4,200 to every Utah teacher during the past four years. This is in addition to wage increases negotiated with individual school districts.
- ✓ Provided $33 million to reimburse teachers for out-of-pocket expenditures for supplies and materials.
- ✓ Set aside $14.1 million to help attract hard-to-hire math, science and special education teachers.
- ✓ Increased per pupil spending by 17%
- ✓ Appropriated $80 million to support school construction and renovation.
